

Ramon Kok - Managing Director of the Enterprise division

Obtaining his Bachelor degree in International Management at the Rotterdam University of Applied Sciences and later on graduating with honour as a Master of Science in General Management at Nyenrode University, Ramon Kok has held a variety of commercial and general management positions at Veenman (now part of Xerox), Lyreco and Office Depot. Over the last 17 years, Ramon's track record has been revolving around international and global responsibilities. He joined Manutan in 2015 as Managing Director for Benelux. His scope then expanded to include the UK, Germany, the Nordic countries and Eastern Europe. In 2021 he was appointed Managing Directors of the Enterprise Division.

All you need. With love.
