

Marco Verdonkschot - Chief Operating Officer and Managing Director Traders Division

After completing his MBA from Nyenrode University in the Netherlands in 1995, Marco started his career in Management Consulting. In 1998, he joined General Electric where he held several International management roles in Europe and the U.S.A.

From 2004, Marco took up a variety of European and global commercial leadership and general management positions at (Johnson) Diversey, SC Johnson Pro and Staples Europe and where he became seasoned in digital and business transformations in multi-channel business models.

Marco joined Manutan Group in 2019 as the Managing Director of the Traders Division. The following year he assumed responsibility for all Manutan companies in the United Kingdom. In 2021, he transitioned into the role of Chief Operating Officer for the Group, responsible for Manutan's offer, sourcing, supply chain operations and digitalisation strategies whilst continuing to oversee the Traders Division