

Pierre-Olivier Brial – Deputy Chief Executive Officer

Pierre-Olivier Brial has enjoyed playing the guitar and singing since he was a child, and devotes his free time to his passion at his home recording studio. After graduating from EDHEC Business School in 1996 (majoring in entrepreneurial studies), he began his career at Bossard Consultants. After being hired in 2001 by French company Manutan as Deputy Chief R&D Officer, he held various executive positions within the Group, including e-business, business development and management of the company's geographic areas across Europe. In November 2011, he was appointed Deputy CEO. He is also Chairman of both the METI Digital Board (Movement of Mid-Cap Companies) and the Mid-Cap Club for Greater Paris.

All you need. With love.
