

Xavier Guichard - Chief Executive Officer

Passionate about art in all its forms, and particularly keen on contemporary painting, Xavier Guichard is a leader driven by a mission: "Enterprising for a Better World". After graduating from Brest Business School, he cut his teeth at Packard Bell and Nec Computers International as a Business Controller before joining the Manutan Group at the age of 29 as Group Controller. In 2005, he became Managing Director of the Scandinavian subsidiaries, before taking over as Head of Group Operations. In November 2011, he was appointed Deputy CEO and then CEO in March 2013.

All you need. With love.
